Dana Hiscock was a member of Patterson Belknap's Trusts and Estates group from 1998 until his retirement in 2013. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Hiscock, who is an honors graduate of Columbia Law School, was a partner at former prominent, New York City based law firms Mudge Rose Guthrie & Alexander and Donovan Leisure Netwon & Irving. Since his retirement, Mr. Hiscock has focused on responsibilities as a fiduciary of estates, trusts, and charitable organizations. Dana and his wife, Kathryn, spend a substantial portion of their time on Real Partners Uganda, an American public charity which supports the 700+ student Mustard Seed Schools in Lukaya, Uganda, which they co-founded in 2005.
