

Sarah Brand Wasson

Associate

sbwasson@pbwt.com

212.336.2207

Sarah Brand Wasson is an Associate.

Education

- Columbia Law School (J.D., 2023)
 - Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar
- Marquette University (B.S., summa cum laude, 2020)

Representative Matters

- Representing global asset management firm in connection with litigation as to a contract dispute with former investment fund managers.
- Defended leading financial technology company against claims by former employee that he had been wrongfully terminated for “whistleblowing.”
- Defended a leading medical device company in a litigation alleging infringement of several patents related to surgical implants in the District of Delaware. Obtained favorable claim constructions and discovery resulting in voluntary dismissal of some patents and summary judgment of invalidity of the remaining patents.
- Conducted pre-litigation review and counseling regarding a multinational pharmaceutical company’s patents relating to its antipsychotic medicines.
- Secured pre-answer dismissal of claims for unjust enrichment, tortious interference with contract, and tortious interference with prospective economic advantage brought against an international law firm by its client’s adversary in connection with law firm’s representation of client in a commercial dispute.
- Represented a leading medical device company in connection with investigation by the U.S. Department of Justice arising from allegations involving the federal False Claims Act and Anti-Kickback Statute.
- Representing and advising leading debt-relief services company and affiliated law firm in relation to a federal criminal investigation, state attorney general investigations, and state agency investigations.
- Obtained pre-answer dismissal of multimillion-dollar malpractice claims brought against a global law firm by a former client based on an indictment on federal charges of extortion and conspiracy.

Pro Bono

- Secured a favorable settlement of an administrative due process complaint against the New York City Department of Education on behalf of a fifteen-year-old student with multiple disabilities, securing proper educational programming and placement for the 2024-25 school year.
- Representing multiple students with disabilities and their parents/guardians in federal litigation against the New York City Department of Education alleging failures to provide appropriate educational programming and services during and after remote and hybrid learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Admissions

- U.S. District Court, Eastern and Southern Districts of New York
- New York

Publications

- "Not Over Yet?: Drug Manufacturers Eye Potential Circuit Split on Federal Drug Pricing Program," The National Law Journal (July 22, 2026)
- "Federal Circuit: District Court Did Not Err In Declining to Find Infringement By Moderna's Activities Involving COVID-19 Vaccine," The Intellectual Property Strategist (July 2025)
- "Federal Circuit: PTAB Did Not Err In Finding That It Retained Authority to Issue Final Written Decision After Deadline Passed," The Intellectual Property Strategist (January 2024)

Publications

July 22, 2026

Not Over Yet?: Drug Manufacturers Eye Potential Circuit Split on Federal Drug Pricing Program

The National Law Journal

July 2025

Federal Circuit: District Court Did Not Err In Declining to Find Infringement By Moderna's Activities Involving COVID-19 Vaccine

The Intellectual Property Strategist

January 2024

Federal Circuit: PTAB Did Not Err In Finding That It Retained Authority to Issue Final Written Decision After Deadline Passed

The Intellectual Property Strategist

January 17, 2024

Supply Demanded: Ninth Circuit Confirms Classwide Damages Models Must Account for Supply-Side Factors

October 19, 2023

EEOC Proposes New Enforcement Guidance on Harassment in the Workplace

Employment Law Alert